

Agenda

Meeting of the AVM East Midlands network

Room E07, Monica Partridge Building, University of Nottingham, Nottingham

20th September 2024, 10am to 12pm

Welcome and introductions

- An opportunity to say who you are, tell us about your experience in volunteer management and share something that is going well for you at the moment.

Digital, technology and volunteer engagement

- Guest speaker Chris Martin from TeamKinetic will talk to us about the current landscape of technology and digital tools & integrations to support volunteer engagement.
- There will be plenty of time for discussion and Q&A so come ready to learn, share and discuss.

Background checks, due diligence etc.

- Rachael Green wants to hear from you about your experiences and approached to this current hot topic in Higher Education related volunteering.

Next meeting

- Date, time, and topic venue to be agreed at the meeting.

Anything else and wrap up

- Please let Rob know ASAP if you have any issues you'd like to discuss with the group
- Closing round to share something you are excited for before our next meeting.

Please note that refreshments are not provided so please bring your own if you want drinks, lunch etc..

Venue information

You can find details of the venue, parking, public transport etc. via the following link <https://www.nottingham.ac.uk/about/visitorinformation/mapsanddirections/universityparkcampus.aspx>. All University of Nottingham Buildings are on Google Maps so should be easy to find. Please note that the Monica Partridge building is behind the Hallward Library.

Whilst parking on campus may be available, it isn't cheap (£10 a day) so you may wish to use public transport.
